

I am opposed to further consolidation of the media in any form. Control of our airways by so few corporations is no different than control by the government, only one side of an issue gets presented. Autocratic control of the media, whether by government or private concern is contrary to the intent of the First Amendment.